Request for Qualifications for Consulting Services

The National Development Council (NDC) seeks to identify individuals, firms and organizations that have the capacity to provide community and economic development consulting services related to affordable housing, community development, economic development, homelessness, organizational development and related topics.

Submission Deadline

This RFQ will remain open until further notice. Applications may be submitted at any time. Note, NDC may request additional information or updated information needed to prepare responses to solicitations for funding. To remain on NDC's approved list, approved applicants must submit information as requested, all information must be provided in a form acceptable to NDC and by the deadline established by NDC.

Once qualified through the RFQ process, qualified applicant(s) will be invited to execute a subcontracting agreement and be included in NDC's application for capacity building funds. The applicant will be deemed pre-qualified for two years, unless otherwise noted by NDC. Being selected as a consultant does not guarantee work, but provides the opportunity for a consultant to work with NDC.
