BECOME AN EXPERT

NDC courses teach professionals how to:

- Evaluate small businesses for creditworthiness
- Structure real estate deals
- Finance affordable housing
- Assemble financing for complex projects using tax credits, tax-exempt bonds and other state and federal programs.

WHY CHOOSE NDC TRAINING?

Course instructors are part of NDC's team of leading development finance practitioners and bring a wealth of real time knowledge and expertise to every NDC training course.

NDC certification series training is intense and rigorous—with as many hours as an average college course, plus homework and a final exam. Students work through real case studies to reach real solutions.

We regularly update our courses with new material that reflects the latest financing programs, legislation and regulations. This includes Opportunity Zones, New Markets Tax Credits, changes to CRA regulations, and more.

“Given the common theme of limited budgets for training, I recommend the NDC EDFP Certification as option number one for the staffing investment dollar.”

Neil White, EDFP
Regional Economic Development Director,
Wisconsin Economic Development Corp.

COURSE & TRAVEL INFORMATION

NDC's Response to COVID-19

During the pandemic, NDC trained thousands of development finance professionals through self-paced, interactive multimedia instruction and via live-remote classes. As the country works to recover from COVID-19, check the online training schedule to see what is being offered in a self-paced.

Course Prerequisites

All registrants must meet established indicated course prerequisites for each course. Please note there are no exceptions made to the prerequisite requirements.

Enrollment

Email information supplied at the time of registration should be for the individual registrant only. Essential information for the student will be sent to this email address.

If you are registering for another person and would like a copy of invoices or confirmations, please contact the registrar at training@ndconline.org and this information will be provided.

A training registration is not confirmed and pre-session materials will not be sent to the registrant until full payment or a properly certified city, state or federal voucher, or purchase order has been received by NDC's Training Division. Payment or Purchase Order need to be received no later than two weeks prior to the course. If neither have been provided, the registration will be removed from the course to allow another student to replace the unfilled spot. Pre-session materials for the course will be sent prior to the start of the course. These materials may include an assignment to be completed prior to the first day of class.

Self-paced Interactive Certification Classes

All students will have six months to complete the online course following the start date. Additional time can be purchased for an additional fee.

Policies and Terms and Conditions

All students must accept the NDC Training Policies and Terms and Conditions before registering for a course. For more information on courses, registration, and student accounts, or to view the Policies and Terms and Conditions, please visit <https://ndconline.org/training/>.

Hotel Accommodations for Open NDC Classes

Training participants are responsible for their own hotel and meal expenses. NDC has secured a block of rooms at our open* training sites. Room rates are based on the prevailing Federal government per diem. The block will be held until thirty days before the start of the course or until the number of contracted rooms has been exhausted, whichever comes first. After this date, reservations will be taken on a space available basis and higher rates may apply. To receive the block rate, make your reservation early and state that you are participating in a National Development Council training course. You may also book your hotel room by going to the details section of the class you are registering for and clicking on the link under "Additional Information."

Open training classes are open to all development professionals.*

Travel and Course Schedule

Participants are responsible for their own travel expenses. Individuals are advised to register for a course before making airline reservations. Classes begin at 9:00 a.m. on the first day of the scheduled course, so participants should arrive the day before the start of the course if airline travel is required. An agenda for each course will be sent to registrants with the pre-session materials. End of day teamwork assignments typically take two hours to complete, so participants should plan their schedules accordingly. Certification course examinations are administered on the last day of class. Students are required to complete and return the examinations before leaving the course. Most participants finish the exam by 1:00p.m. (2:00p.m. in final certification courses), so travel plans should be made for late in the afternoon on the final day.

APA AICP APPROVED

AICP members can earn Certification Maintenance (CM) credits for many NDC Training activities. When CM credits are available, they are noted on NDC's website or at www.planning.org/cm.
